

Hinman Award for Literary Studies

An English Department Essay Prize

Submit Your Work!

The Hinman Award for Literary Studies is awarded each Spring to the best undergraduate essay focusing on literary analysis, film studies, and/or cultural criticism. The author of the winning essay shall receive a $100 prize, as well as publication on the English Department website. Honorable Mentions may also be awarded at the discretion of the Selection Committee. The Selection Committee for The Hinman includes literature and film faculty from the Plymouth State English Department. All submissions are blind. Submissions are welcome from all full-time PSU undergraduate students with a declared major or minor in English (any option).

The prize is named after Mary-Lou Hinman, a former professor of English at Plymouth State. Dr. Hinman taught for twenty-five years at the college, chaired the English Department, and won the 1995 Distinguished Teaching Award.

To submit an essay of any length for consideration, email your submission to
*Dr. Robin DeRosa, Chair
Hinman Selection Committee
rderosa@plymouth.edu.*

Submissions must be attached to your email as a Word document, and your name should NOT appear in the document. Please include your telephone number with your email.

*Deadline to Apply:
Friday, April 15th by 4pm.*

For more info, visit www.plymouth.edu/departments/english

*Sponsored by the English Department
Plymouth State University*