New Year's Card Artwork Submission Form

Plymouth State's undergraduate and graduate students are invited to create the design for the official 2012 University Advancement New Year's card. The contest winner will receive artist credits on the card and a certificate of achievement.

Artwork submissions should convey a sense of optimism and hope for the New Year while thematically incorporating Plymouth State. The contest is to determine artwork only; words or copy are not to be included in final submissions. Artwork may not reference specific religious holidays and should not contain images related to specific religious holidays. Please be sure to review the design specifications and submission guidelines prior to submitting your artwork for consideration. Artwork that does not meet the requirements will not be considered. You may complete this form online at <http://go.plymouth.edu/2012-card>. The deadline for entries is November 18, 2011.
