Welcome Back!

How have you been since your last visit? How was your break? We have been very busy here gearing up for Spring 2017. Come see us in the lower level of Mary Lyon Hall, room 043.

While you are here, don’t forget to sign up for a one-on-one, subject-specific tutor; or attend a Study Skills Session to brush up on the tools you need to be a successful student.

Subject Area Tutoring

- Can help you achieve academic success
- Is for everyone
- Is covered under your tuition
- Is available for most 1000- and 2000-level courses
- Can help you with specific courses and/or general study skills

Don’t wait -- stop by now if you need help. We are here for you!

If you have questions about tutoring, email Angie Ricciardi, our tutor coordinator:

aricciardi@plymouth.edu

TRIO Tuesday Events

Educational Sessions (all sessions will be in Boyd 144):

January 31 – Check in with friends and TRIO staff to talk about readjusting to classes and campus life.

February 7 – Stress Management Strategies: learn how to successfully manage stress for a happier you.

February 14 – No session: have fun at Winter Carnival.

February 21 – Intro to Housing Selection: learn how to navigate the housing selection process.

February 28th – Financial Resources: learn about loan alternative resources

Things to Know!

- Jan 30: Spring Semester Begins at 8am
- Feb 6: Add/Drop deadline
- Feb 15: Winter Carnival (no daytime classes)
- March 13: Six week grades available
- March 17: Spring Break begins at 3:20 pm

PASS is primarily funded by a federal TRIO grant that serves students who are first-generation, low income, and/or have disabilities.