Study skills tutoring is still available during final exam week, 8am–4:30pm, though availability may be limited. Email Angie Ricciardi if you would like to make an appointment with a study skills tutor.

aricciardi@plymouth.edu

Scholarships are a great way to ease the financial stress of attending college. Check out these commonly asked questions in regards to scholarships and tips on how to make yourself more marketable.

The Ultimate Scholarship FAQ

Financial Aid Reminders

PSU’s FAFSA Priority Filing Deadline remains March 1

www.FAFSA.gov

Do you have questions about the FAFSA application? The Department of Education’s HOMEROOM website is a great resource.

Need additional funding? Consider a Parent PLUS loan or Private/Alternative Loan!

Payment Plan information is available through Student Account Services website.

Don’t forget about grants and scholarships; visit Financial Aid for more information.

PASS is primarily funded by a federal TRIO grant that serves students who are first-generation, income eligible, and/or have disabilities.