#whatcanyoudowithanenglishmajor?

Kim Paniagua – ‘10

Major: English

Concentration: Teacher Cert.

Kim worked at Souhegan High School in Amherst, NH since the Fall of 2011. She teaches a 10th grade interdisciplinary American Studies course with a History teacher. Souhegan is the only school in NH that is part of the Coalition of Essential Schools, an organization founded by Ted Sizer. She’s also only 1 of 4 English teachers in the state that is a part of a pilot program called PACE (Performance Assessment for Competency Education) whose main goal is to show the federal and state governments that locally grown assessments can and should replace future Common Core state testing. They’re currently administering those local assessments this year and will submit them to the Department of Education next year.