Please read the following as it contains important information regarding your PSU Account.

Full payment is due by Friday, November 11, 2016 or at the time of registration. Failure to pay by the due date or at the time of registration will put you in jeopardy of being dropped from your course(s). Payment options via your online bill include electronic check or credit/debit cards and will post to your account within 48 hours. Please note that credit and debit card payments are assessed a 2.75% non-refundable service fee while there is no fee for an e-check payment. Other options for payment (i.e. cash, check, payment plans) are listed on Student Account Services web page.

If your course(s) are covered with an alternative method (i.e., purchase order, USNH tuition waiver, Assistantship waiver, Veteran's Affairs benefits, etc.) please contact Student Account Services at 603-535-2215 or via email at psu-studentaccount@plymouth.edu so payment to your account can be applied and prevent you from being inadvertently dropped from your course(s) for non-payment.

Students that have met and completed all federal financial aid requirements, your financial aid award will automatically be assessed at the time of registration. Should you have questions regarding your aid please contact our financial aid team at finaid@plymouth.edu.
