

K-12 WINTER LITERACY WORKSHOPS

Earn Graduate Credits • Strengthen Your Teaching • Inspire Young Readers & Writers

FREE, in-person
workshops on the PSU campus, led by

- Tonia Orlando
- Sarah Thompson
- Kenneth Logan

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

JANUARY 23-24

TWO WORKSHOP OPTIONS:

Option A

Early Literacy Focus

(Grades K-4)

Day 1 :

Foundational Skills

Day 2:

Transitional Skills

Option B

Upper Grades Focus

(Grades 5-12)

Day 1 :

Teaching Reading

Day 2:

Teaching Writing

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT OUR WEBSITE

K-12 WINTER LITERACY WORKSHOPS

TRANSFORM YOUR LITERACY INSTRUCTION THIS WINTER!

Join us for two immersive, practical days of professional learning tailored to your grade level and classroom needs. Whether you're focused on early literacy or teaching in upper grades, you'll walk away with powerful tools to improve reading and writing outcomes for all students.

Two Workshops Offered

Option A: Early Literacy Focus (Grades K–4)	Option B: Upper Grades Focus (Grades 5–12)
Day 1: Foundational Skills  Using spelling screener data and differentiated spelling instruction  Teaching phonological awareness in targeted or whole-group settings	Day 1: Teaching Reading  Building strong word recognition skills  Expanding and deepening vocabulary and background knowledge  Sharpening reading comprehension through effective questioning
Day 2: Transitional Strategies  Developing fluency from letters to longer passages  Embedding morphology in direct vocabulary instruction	Day 2: Teaching Writing  Teaching sentence-level skills  Implementing the Self-Regulated Strategy Development (SRSD) to teach writing arguments and narratives

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER - OPTION A

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER - OPTION B

9am - 3pm both days

Cost is $50, lunch included

Option to Earn Graduate Credit

REGISTER NOW!

Spots are limited! Reserve your seat and make a difference in your students' literacy journey.