Residential Living-Learning Clusters—for members of recognized student organizations and likeminded students to live together in campus housing. Groups are formed around a shared interest or common goal to elevate the residential experience and further promote a sense of belonging. RLC communities live the campus mission of Ut Prosim (“That I may serve”) by giving back to the area where they live through service and educational and social events.

Affinity: Merrill Place 7th floor (doubles w/ Bath or singles w/ shared bath) and University Apartments (4-person 2-bedroom and 1-bedroom 2-person)

A few examples—the possibilities are endless!

- Are you academically focused? Create your own scholars or calculus group.
- Are you into wellness? Create your own substance free, exercise, or yoga group.
- Are you a member of a sports team, intramurals, or a club? Create a soccer, baseball, frisbee, football, drama, or succulent group.
- Are you a techie or gamer? Create a Fortnite or Minecraft group.

The Q: Are you an ally of the LGBTQIA community? Create your own gay/lesbian/trans group or select the “The Q,” a residential space for members and allies of the LGBTQIA+ community at PSU. Students of all gender(s)/identity (ies), sexes, romantic and sexual orientations are invited to live in the community. The goal of The Q is to foster an active, inclusive, and accepting community for all residents. Many social and diversity-focused programs are offered. 1st floor of Mary Lyon with a gender-neutral restroom (single and double rooms).

Zoom or Proxy (where applicable)

Zoom: Individuals, or if in a group, the group leader, may either attend via Zoom at the appointed time or submit a proxy form.

Finalize your application by choosing a meal plan and then click on the confirmation page to be sure you are assigned as intended.
