Important Information Regarding PSU Operations on Tuesday February 16, 2021

Significant winter weather conditions are expected to arrive late tonight and continue through tomorrow. Ice and snow could make travel difficult throughout the day tomorrow.

Based on this information please note the following:

- Classes scheduled for Tuesday February 16, 2021 are encouraged to be remote if possible. In-person classes or labs scheduled for tomorrow can still meet in-person at the discretion of the instructor.

- Staff, faculty and students who are working on campus and are able to work remotely should do so tomorrow. Please work with your supervisor to determine if you're able to work remotely on Tuesday.

- Offices, departments, staff and faculty who are already working remotely should continue to do so as regularly planned and scheduled.

- Essential staff should still report to campus as normal.

  COVID-19 testing will take place as planned tomorrow, Tuesday February 16, from 9:00 am until 4:00 pm (note earlier closing time)

  If you are a student, living on or close to campus please come tomorrow to be tested.

  For those faculty, staff or students unable to make testing today or tomorrow additional testing will take place on Thursday February 18 from 7:00 am until 2:00 pm in The HUB Courtroom

Please NOTE:
- Prospect Dining Hall will open at 10:00 am for brunch and operate on a weekend schedule.
- All PSU Dining retail operations are closed
- The Lamson Library and Learning Commons will open at its scheduled time but with limited services.
- Student Health Services will be open regular hours.
- In person athletic practices may be held at the discretion of the Athletic Director in consultation with the coach.
- In person music/theater/dance rehearsals may be held at the discretion of the Program Coordinators in consultation with the activity leaders.
- The Center for Young Children & Families will be open regular hours.
